27 March 1976

Dear John

I very much regret that I will be out of the Country on the Night of your Reception and so cannot express to you my thanks for all of the assistance and guidance you have given me during the past four years. I also want to express my deep appreciation of your truly outstanding service over a period as long as the existence of this Agency & today. All of us owe you a debt of gratitude as does your Country.

With every good Wish to you in the years ahead

Faithfully
Duce
